Canadian Legion No. 10 Honor Retiring Secretary

We have said before in the columns of The Standard that the Memorial Hall which is such a valuable asset to the Town, opens its hospitable doors on so many varied functions that it would seem by now, the type of entertainment to be given, must have covered the entire gamut, but Friday evening's gathering was of a type unique and different from any preceding.

Members of the Legion with their wives and a few of their friends gathered to pay a well deserved tribute to W. S. Paterson, who as Secretary-Treasurer for eighteen years has given such interested service in behalf of the best interests of the Legion and the improvement and upkeep of the Hall, that his connection with the Hall has become a living, deep-rooted association. This service was so strongly recognized by his comrades that all gathered gladly to pay tribute, albeit deeply regretting his departure.

The Legion is very fortunate in having as Mr. Paterson's successor as Secretary-Treasurer, the able and interested services of S. H. Crowther. About 70 persons partook of a bountiful and appetizing supper at attractively appointed tables.

Comrade Pres. J. Sharp made his first appearance as President and ably performed his duties.

Included in an interesting program was the presentation of a Life Membership Badge to Mr. Paterson by Comrade Petley Provincial Secretary. In his remarks Mr. Petley spoke words of praise to the retiring secretary for his efficient services and with this badge said W. S. would be admitted to any branch of the Legion as a welcome guest throughout Canada or the United States. He fully expected Comrade Pat. to be sparing with himself in the Calgary branch over some question which might arise and then expressed his pleasure at presenting this Life Membership to Comrade Pat.

Next followed the presenting of a handsome occasional chair and foot stool in Blue Brocade Tapestry by Comrade S. H. Crowther, who assured "Pat" how greatly he would be missed in their meetings and said his handiwork and artistic taste were evident on all sides both in the large hall and dining hall and in the Honor Rolls which hang on the walls of many Churches and Community Halls of the District.

However, Mr. Crowther sounded the note of the spirit of carrying on. The world is in a state of transition, and in this removal of Comrade Paterson we have come to the end of a Chapter—but the story goes on and we as Legion Members, must carry on. The future holds much for us all to do—and we must meet the challenge that awaits, with a spirit of optimism and determination to increase the usefulness of the Legion in the days to come.

Comrade Way then with well-humored said he had no doubt that Mrs. Paterson had played a valuable aid to her husband in choosing curtains and other furnishing for the hall and presented her with a beautiful spray of flowers.

Jimmy Gunn with genuine regard for the small friends he is going to miss so greatly presented Margaret and Hughie with a box of chocolates each.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Paterson made very fitting replies. They had enjoyed their work and friends in Strathmore. Mr. Paterson said in his work he had been ably assisted, and that it was the team work which made the result possible. They invited their friends to visit them in Calgary.

"For They are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung and a hearty cheer given. C. E. Way was presented with the Past President's Badge by Comrade Petley who doubted not that Mr. Way would be at the back of Pres. Sharp's chair, telling him "how things should be done."

Mr. Hamilton, Chairman of the Rehabilitation Committee gave an interesting summary of the progress made in behalf of the men returning from the present war over that of 1918. He said much had been done and much more will be done, re-advances in pensions and other payments. But it is jobs not money the men will want and a large program is being planned to provide these and advice as to a man's fitness for a job.

Comrade Jenkinson, Chairman of the War Services Commission, was very enthusiastic over the spirit that prevails in the various camps, the desire of the boys to improve their education, the large attendance at church service, the high morale of the men generally, were features he emphasized of which we may well be proud.

These addresses were interspersed with a very excellent musical program.

Community singing led by Mr. Patrick. Instrumental selections by Mrs. Florence Gillespie in her usual finished manner and two solos, "Friend O' Mine" and "Scots Wha Hae" by Mrs. Campbell of Calgary were very delightfully rendered.

No program in Strathmore would be complete without Mr. Patrick's humorous songs, and these he gave in his own inimitable manner.

God Save the King, brought to an end a very happily arranged evening.

CANADIAN YOUTH CONFERENCE

Briefs Read by Strathmore Delegates

The following is a summary of the findings of the Senior Group of delegates who have spent much time and thought during the past three weeks framing a "brief" that if put into practice would work toward the betterment of conditions generally.

A number of figures compiled from the Canada Year Book of 1937 and from J. S. Woodworth are omitted to conserve space.

A Life Insurance Co. calculated that of every 100 Canadian men starting life at 25, by the age of 65, 36 have died, 1 is wealthy, 4 are well-to-do, 6 live on earnings, 54 are no longer self-supporting.

WHEATLAND S. D.

The Board of the Wheatland School Division No. 40 met at Strathmore on Friday, May 26th.

An agreement was signed between the Boards of the Wheatland School Division and the Strathmore School District for the inclusion of the Strathmore S. D. in the Division and has been forwarded for the approval of the Minister of Education.

A new 6-room house with full basement and furnace has been purchased at Swallow as a residence for the Principal. A grant of 50% of the cost of such buildings is now being allowed by the Department of Education.

Approval was given for the moving of a suitable school building to the Valley Garden school site to replace the one lost by fire there last January.

A new teacher's salary schedule was adopted to take effect as from Sept. 1st, 1944 which will have the effect of making the minimum salary for Elementary teachers $1,000.00 per annum with increments based on experience. The minimum for High School teachers is $1,400.00 and a maximum of over $2,000.00 may be reached by H. S. principals with necessary experience and qualifications.

The resignation of Miss Doris Hays as teacher of Crowfoot School, due to ill health, was accepted and Mrs. Ethel White has taken over the duties of teacher there, for the balance of the term.

Applications are now being received from teachers for next school year, and five new ones have already been signed up.

Owing to the rising cost of building material etc. the insurance coverage on buildings was increased by 10% and on furniture and equipment by 20.

The annual school sports are being held throughout the Division during the first part of June, the one at Strathmore being on June 9th. There will be one at Kathryn, Acme, Swallow and Rosebud this year.

2. As a result—
(a) Families are struggling along making only enough for the bare necessities of life.

(b) They are not in a position to own their own homes.

(c) They cannot take holidays.

(d) Education is limited.

(e) Youth have no security in their lives.

(f) They cannot marry and have children while they are still young.

3. We believe that—
(a) For a time after the war taxes should be kept at approximately the same level as at present, but levied on a more scientific basis.

MRS. HANSON NEW OWNER OF C. P. R. FARM

Mrs. Annie Hanson of Calgary District has purchased the C. P. R. Dairy Farm consisting of some 650 ac. together with the pure-bred Holsteins numbering about 25 formerly belonging to the C. P. R., and has brought in a herd of about 105 Grade Holsteins and will ship whole milk to the Union Milk Co. Ltd., Calgary.

Mrs. Hanson brings with her thirty years of experience in the dairy business as a milk producer, and hopes to maintain the reputation and high standards established by the C. P. R. Farm.

The carrying on of this dairy business may well be an asset to the district, as it will necessitate purchasing all feed and grain.

Mrs. Hanson's youngest son, Morris is at present on furlough from the R. C. A. F. He is a graduate in Dairy Husbandry of the University of Alberta, and has plans for extending the business in the post-war period. Her remaining three sons are all in the Canadian Army Overseas. They are Major Sam Hanson in the R. C. A. M. C., Lt. Albert Hanson R. C. E. and Pte. Harry Hanson, R. C. A. M. C.

Mrs. Hanson respectfully solicits the co-operation of the people of the district as she carries on the business during the absence of her four sons in the armed services.

THE OUT-SIDE

● The Hon. D. B. MacMillan announces the appointment of Mr. Benjamin Russell as Director of Water Resources, to succeed Mr. P. M. Sauder, now manager of the Western Irrigation District at Strathmore.

—By Jim Greenblatt — —From his weekly Ottawa Letter.

● Increased Pay for Returned Men—Three Orders-in-Council tabled in the House, to be effective June 1st, are significant of the trend towards a maximum of better security for members of the Armed Forces in the early discharge period. Briefly, increases for allowances under the post-discharge re-establishment order for those who would like to take a course in vocational training, or continue their education will be— for single men from $44.20 a month to $60, and for married men to $80 from $62.40.

There will be increases for those waiting returns from small business or farms, and this includes men who are fit and for whom suitable jobs cannot be located, or for men temporarily incapacitated. Widows of pensioned vets of the First Great War can get pension or allowance if married before May 1, 1944; a disability pensioner may receive allowance for wife and children if marriage took place and children were born before the same date, and there is provision for increase to $30 from $15 if pension for a dependent parent.

● Housewives need never feel that by buying jam or any other commodity in retail stores, they are depriving the armed forces. Some women, the Consumer Branch tells us, have been suggesting they shouldn't do any home canning, but should leave the sugar to make jam for the lads over there. This is a generous but quite unnecessary gesture, we are told. Whether for bombs or for jam, the armed forces have a priority. In case of jam, the needs of the forces have been carefully calculated. Women are urged to preserve all the fresh fruit they can, with the amount of sugar it has been possible to put at their disposal. Later, when home canned goods give out, jam may be bought with any preserve coupons which are then valid.

● This Dominion's exports for the first four months of 1944 reached the record figure of $1,035 million, compared with $778 millions for the same period a year ago. We sent to the United Kingdom $385,000,000 compared to $136,000,000 in the four months of 1943, which is an outstanding figure showing just what Canada is really doing in this war. To United States in that period went $395,000,000 and to Russia 24 millions, to India $40,000,000 and even to Italy $50,000,000 among others.

● Rev. Robert Magowan, of First United Church, Lethbridge, has been chosen head of the Alberta conference for 1944-45, succeeding Rev. W. T. Young.

MR. SORENSON CONTINUES SALE OF MILK

Mr. Sorenson will continue to deliver milk until further notice to the Cold Storage Locker Plant, from where it will be handled by Mr. S. Coldwell.

THE OTTAWA SPOTLIGHT

By M. McDUGALL
(Weekly Review of National Affairs)
The Commonwealth Conference—

The atmosphere created here by the conference of British Commonwealth prime ministers and the declaration at its close has been one of renewed confidence in the common purpose and power of the "united association" even if it may be incomprehensible to those who do or will not understand the capabilities of international democracy any more than they understand the capabilities of national democracy in marshalling public opinion for joint action in a moment of supreme crisis. People in countries ruled by dictatorship undoubtedly have a great deal of difficulty in understanding that loyalty based on spiritual intangibles may have a great deal of validity and strength even when not backed by the gold standard of formal bonds.

Internees in Canada—

There are now only 730 persons interned in Canada, 430 of these being of Japanese birth or origin, the rest being of other races and nationalities. The total number of internees is considerably reduced from those placed in camps about June 1940 when there was a great deal of nervousness over the war situation with the capitulation of France. Many were later released when the authorities became convinced that they would not be a danger to the state. When anyone requests a review of his case he is interrogated by an advisory board and if the board is convinced of his good intentions, it forwards its recommendations for release to the minister of justice. While not an essential condition of release, signing an undertaking by the man that he will abide by the laws of Canada and will do nothing to interfere with the country's war effort is an additional argument in support of the man's good faith. During the debate in the house there has been a strong plea advanced by members of the opposition for the religious freedom of the individual. The answer of the minister of justice to this is that there is nothing in the regulations to interfere with a man's thinking, teaching or worshipping the Almighty in any way that his conscience may dictate. The question was raised over the situation surrounding the sect known as Jehovah's Witnesses. It was claimed in the house that while the ban was raised from the sect itself, its subsidiary organizations should also be declared legal. The sect had originally been placed under the ban because of its teaching that its adherents were not subject to manmade laws.

Nature in Wild State Preserved in National Parks

The national parks of Canada were established to preserve in their natural state areas of outstanding beauty and interest and to keep them as sanctuaries for wildlife. They are being maintained by scientific management as natural museums of wild birds and animals indigenous to the area in which they are situated.

In the administration of these national parks an attempt is made to strike a happy balance which will permit the wild animals and plants to perpetuate their kind and at the same time enable man to obtain maximum enjoyment from association with unmarred nature. A policy aimed at preserving the balance of nature by the management of all forms of wildlife in the park areas is therefore followed, but at the same time man is encouraged to make use of the parks for his health, education, recreation, and inspiration. Being living museums of wildlife, the parks also serve as reservoirs from which other adjacent areas can be stocked. This in itself is important in view of the depletion, almost to the point of extinction, of some forms of Canadian wildlife.

Wildlife adds materially to the pleasure of the park visitors. However charming the scenery, its beauty and interest are increased a hundredfold by the sight of wild creatures in the forest, the song of birds in the trees, the whirl of wings skimming the surface of the water, or the leap of a trout from deep, eddying pools. These add life to the scene and are an essential part of the national parks idea. The beauty of scenery can best be appreciated where there is evidence of the pulsation of life; otherwise the most charming spot becomes tinged with melancholy and one is apt to experience sensations similar to those felt when gazing upon some magnificent ruin whose occupants have long since departed. There is no doubt that one of the most fascinating features of these national parks is the opportunity they afford to study and photograph wild animals in their natural habitat.

That is why these areas have become national playgrounds in which recreation, fresh air, sunshine, beautiful scenery and wilderness conditions combine to effect an uplifting of spirit, a renewal of strength of body and a stimulation of mind. They stand out as a national recognition that recreation in the outdoors is essential for the physical, mental and moral well-being of the people.

Christian Science

"God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the subject of the Lesson Sermon at all Christian Science Churches on Sunday. The Golden Text is Jeremiah 10:16. One of the Scriptural citations is "Thus saith the Lord the King of Israel, and his redeemer the Lord of hosts; I am the first and I am the last; and beside me there is no God". (Isaiah 44:6). One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is "There is but one primal cause. Therefore there can be no effect from any other cause, and there can be no reality in aught which does not proceed from this great and only cause" (p. 207).

Right Now THE NEED IS DESPERATE

20,000 TONS OF WASTE PAPER ARE REQUIRED EVERY MONTH TO MAKE ESSENTIAL CONTAINERS FOR MILITARY SUPPLIES

WHAT IS WANTED

You can remedy this critical paper shortage by saving every scrap of Waste Paper, namely: wrapping paper—store bags—cardboard—cartons—corrugated board—old magazines and books—envelopes and letters—newspapers. These represent the raw material for making vitally needed Paper containers.

HOW TO DO IT

Tie securely in separate bundles. (The little time you take will save thousands of man hours.) Then dispose of it through your local voluntary Salvage Committee or other War Voluntary Organization, or sell it through any known trade channels, your pedlar, dealers or others. The important thing is your Waste Paper moving to the mills.

(b) Price Control should be maintained.
(c) Reconstruction Loans similar to present Victory Loans could be introduced. With this revenue the Government could provide work for the people by setting up a plan for reconstruction and development of the country's resources.

(d) An adequate old age pension should be given, to ease the burden placed on young people who are supporting their parents and are trying to establish themselves.

(e) Young people wishing to marry should be able to borrow money from the Government to buy homes, on a plan similar to that of farms for returned men.

HOUSING—

1. The following faults exist today
(a) A decided lack of adequate housing.

(b) Little foresight in town planning, resulting in narrow streets crowding of houses, and too few playgrounds.

(c) Families live in over crowded apartments.

(d) Shortage of Modern conveniences.

2. This has resulted in—
(a) Lowered standards of health and living conditions.

(b) Disharmony in family relations due to overcrowding.

(c) Overburdened mothers with too little time for their children.

(d) Juvenile delinquency.

3. We would suggest—
(a) A more comprehensive system of Government loans for home building and improvement, with plans for electrification of rural areas.

(b) An educational policy to aid home builders in choosing the most suitable home for their localities.

HEALTH—
1. Figures showing number of young men unfit for military service prove that the health of Canada's youth is below par. We feel that this is due to—

(a) Undernourishment, caused by insufficient knowledge of proper diet.

(b) Lack of adequate and timely medical care.

(c) Not enough outdoor sports.

(d) Inadequate water and sewage systems, causing spread of disease.

2. To remedy this situation we would suggest—
(a) A comprehensive Health Insurance Scheme.

(b) Establishment of Municipal

Venerable Disease plays no favorites. The fight against this enemy within is a community problem. No longer may any responsible person say:

"This does not concern me"

In Alberta, Syphilis and Gonorrhea are controlled by advanced legislation which enables health authorities to examine and retain any person suspected of V.D. infection in spite of this progressive policy, new cases of Venereal Disease continue to appear. Syphilis and Gonorrhea in adults is most frequently caused through close personal contact. Occasionally it is transmitted by kissing, inert objects and through skin wounds. Absolute protection must incorporate every measure of precaution and control. You can have an examination by your physician or you may have this done at one of the Provincial clinics, which are maintained at: Edmonton, Calgary, Medicine Hat, Lethbridge, Peace River, High Prairie and Melancon.

(c) More emphasis on Health Education.

(d) Encouragement of organized sports and youth training.

MARRIAGE EDUCATION—

1. Marriage is one job for which we are not trained or prepared, yet so much depends upon its success or failure. We would suggest that—

(a) All provincial governments introduce into the High School curricula, courses in Sex Education, to be taught only by doctors, nurses, or fully trained psychologists.

(b) More stress be placed on Household Economics and Shop.

(c) Pre-marriage courses be made available to young people; these to include Marriage Relationships, Household Economics, Budgets and Infant Care.

(d) Health examinations before marriage be rigid and compulsory.

POST-WAR ADJUSTMENTS—

1. To keep pace with changing living conditions—

(a) Nursery Schools should be established where necessary.

(b) Married women should be gradually eased out of factories, etc. making way for returned men.

(c) Courses in Adult Education should be established.

2. There will be a period of rehabilitation after the war when the men in the forces return to civilian life. Hasty marriages will be put to the test. Long separations will find husband and wife grown apart with few interests in common.

A court of Family Relations should be set up by the Government to help solve the many problems brought about by these facts, the members of this Court to be chosen for their humanity as well as for their knowledge. Such a Court should cover a limited territory, so that it would have both the time and the opportunity for a thorough examination of the history of each case.

Conclusion—

In this brief, we have made a number of suggestions which we hope will be acted upon. Though you may disagree with some of them, we think you will agree that they are steps in the right direction. We consider Youth and the Family one of the more important topics under discussion, since the family is youth's yardstick, by which he measures the outside world. It is the basis on which he builds his future, and the foundation must be firm if the future is to be broad and full of accomplishment.

ROCKYFORD

By K. M. G.

Mr. Harvey Katterhagen had the misfortune of losing his well equipped repair shop and all his tools on Friday by fire, which became quite beyond control in a short time. They were fortunate in saving the balance of the farm buildings and the house.

Mr. Allan Valle, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Valle, visited his home here for a couple of days. He and his uncle Stanley Marks motored home from Armada where the boys live with Mr. Marks Sr. and do the farm work.

Rev. H. V. Ellison is at present in Edmonton attending the Annual United Church Conference. He expects to return this week and will be in his own pulpit at Rockyford and Rosebud the first Sunday in June.

The girls of the C. G. I. T. conducted Church Service at the United Church on Sunday, May 28th and are to be commended on their efficient manner. Mrs. Ellison read the address and all was under the direction of Mrs. Durrant, their Leader.

An interesting game of Softball was witnessed on Tuesday last when the pupils of Baintree School visited Rockyford for a friendly game. The score was high and the honors finally stayed with the home team. Another get-together is being arranged.

THREE GREAT POST WAR TASKS — The Wide Horizon

BY GEN. JAN CHRISTIAN SMUTS
Premier of the Union of South Africa
—From a speech delivered in Birmingham, England, as reported by Reuter.

I PUT the problem of Europe, of her salvaging and rehabilitation, first in our program of world reconstruction after this war. She must not be carved up, atomized and reduced to a helpless chaos of fragments.

Rather should she receive a new stable structure as a United States or Commonwealth of Europe. And in making of this new structure, this island with its unique position should play its proper leading part.

Second on our post-war peace program I would place the question of establishing a world organization for security against war.

It will almost inevitably be an improved and reformed version of the old League of Nations. That brave and brilliant improvisation failed in part, largely because it was not clothed with sufficient authority and coercive power to maintain peace.

Next time the responsibility should be placed on those who have power, and the Great Powers who won the war should be made responsible in the first instance for keeping peace.

Such, for instance, would be the fruitful association which has grown up between the United States and the British Commonwealth of Nations during this war — in many ways the most valuable by-product of the war. Understandings and co-operation which have grown up between these two groups form perhaps the most promising and lasting development of this war.

It may yet prove the turning point in history and become the most valuable force behind a new world organization and world progress generally.

But let there be nothing exclusive about it and let it not exclude close collaboration with Russia. This would arise a triple bulwark of Great Powers against aggression.

The phenomenal rise of Russia need not frighten the world. She has her part to play in a new comity of nations. She has arisen from vast purifying upheaval and sufferings and has still her great contribution to make to human history.

But there is a third and no less important task before us. We must prepare for the new era — for the age of man, the common man, the man whom in Lincoln's homely, humorous phrase God loves because he has made so many of them.

From the beginning of this century, our generation has been scourged by one war after the other. Our conscience is becoming seared. Our sense of pity and sympathy is deadened.

After the last war we erected monuments to the Unknown Soldier as representative of nameless heroes sacrificed in bloody slaughters of that war.

Shall we not after this war erect a monument to the common man, as representative of the men, women and children of the civilian populations who paid the penalty and bore the sufferings for the sins and shortcomings of our western civilizations?

And should that memorial not take the form of a better social order or society, with higher standards of living, with more social justice and security and of better opportunities for life?

Where we failed 25 years ago we may now hope to succeed after bitter experience, not only of this war but of the post-war social and economic troubles which overtook us in the years between the two wars.

And so from the ruins of this war will arise a new monument to man, the common man, which will record the passing of an era — the era of social indifference and the coming of the new age with its higher standard of social responsibility of every citizen born into our society.

C. Y. C. CONFERENCE

THE Youth of today are thinking in different terms from those of their parents a generation ago.

They are facing vital issues in a much more frank and fundamental attitude. That they have been doing much real, serious and plain thinking is very evident from the briefs presented at the Conference.

Their desire to continue the discussions again next Fall, instead of concluding with this present Conference is a hopeful indication that the men and women of tomorrow are in earnest and will strive for better all-round conditions; a high standard of living, and the break down of any illic-it leading.

"Hey, you're cheating!"

"I'm not. I had that case before started."

Plowman's Wisdom

Now that the smoke raised by E. H. Faulkner's book, "Plowman's Folly," has cleared away, we are left wondering what remains. Presumably most of our readers have heard of the book which, in the words of its author, "sets out to show that the mouldboard plow—is the most satisfactory implement for the preparation of and for the production of crops." Tons of paper have been used for the publication of more or less controversial discussion of this subject and we don't propose to use more.

The Canadian farmer is shrewd, and is not likely to change his tillage methods until convinced of the wisdom of doing so. It is estimated that 150-million acres of land will be plowed in the United States this year and, as usual, the mouldboard plow is at work on the Canadian prairies. True, there are highly productive fields in Southern Alberta that have not been plowed for a quarter of a century. But in other parts of the prairies, the mouldboard plow is considered indispensable. The plowless fallow with trash cover, often combined with strip farming, is very effective in the control of soil drifting, especially in some districts, if tillage operations are carried out efficiently and at the proper time. It does not follow that this practice should be adopted universally.

The prairie plowman's wisdom is beyond question because he selects his tillage methods in the light of his own and his neighbour's experience plus advice from those whose duty it is to examine and to test methods which have succeeded elsewhere.

NOW The Best Milker is Better Than Ever

NEW McCORMICK-DEERING

International Harvester engineers have been busy improving the McCormick-Deering Milker to make your milking even easier and more productive. Look at these features you get now:

Alternating action pulsator (milking two teats at a time), as well as single action, now available.

New sanitary claw, with "straight-through" design.

New beardless test cup shells and new inflations.

New milker head with rounded under surface.

New wide-mouth pall.

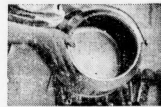

Stainless steel at all points where milk touches metal.

Get the most from your cows with the new McCormick-Deering milker. Here is machine milking at its best.

Ask Us For a Demonstration!

The new McCormick-Deering milker has a "straight-through" design that means through, easy cleaning. The smooth finished finish of the milk lines makes them easy to clean.

How's this for an easy-to-clean, modern stainless steel milker pall? The wider top means better circulation of air in cleaning, easier pouring. No hiding places for dirt and bacteria in this unit.

now - VITAMIC RUBBER

FIRESTONE'S GREATEST CONTRIBUTION TO LONG TIRE LIFE AND MILEAGE

Firestone, pioneers of the balloon and high-speed tires, now make another contribution to advanced motoring... VITAMIC RUBBER... for longer tire life and mileage.

It is a well-known fact that adding small amounts of metals, such as chromium and tungsten, to steel greatly increases the strength and durability of the alloy produced.

In a similar manner, it has been found by Firestone research that the intimate mixing with rubber of small amounts of a new scientific discovery, "Vitalin," imparts long-sought properties to the rubber. As in the alloy steel, the new rubber compound VITAMIC RUBBER... is greatly improved in strength, wear-ability, and resistance to heat and ageing.

All Firestone tires are now made with Vitamic Rubber. This added extra value, together with Gum-Dipping and Safety Locked Cords, is all the more reason why you should insist on Firestone tires when you obtain a Tire Ration Permit.

VITAMIC RUBBER is produced by adding Vitalin when the rubber is compounded. It gives extra protection against weather checking and wear, thus keeping the rubber tough and lively.

STANDARD CHAPTER O. E. S. ANNUAL BIRTHDAY

Standard Chapter No. 76 O. E. S. celebrated their Annual birthday with a party on Monday evening, May 29th when guests were present from Calgary, Hussar, Rockyford and Gleichen. The visitors from neighboring chapters were honored when an interesting "Good Neighbor" addenda was enacted for their pleasure and entertainment by the Standard Chapter.

Refreshments were served at tables very artistically decorated with flowers and tall tapers in Chapter colors. Blue and silver streamers were also a decorative note. A large four tiered birthday cake centred the head table at which the Worthy Patron, J. M. Wheatley and Worthy Matron, Tena Wagler presided.

Toasts honoring "The King" "Grand Chapter", "The Visitors" and the "Armed Forces" were given in some very clever speeches.

I had a nightmare...

I dreamed that I paid $5.00 for a haircut and $50.00 for a pair of cardboard shoes. I dreamed that we had no wartime controls on prices, profits or wages, and that we hadn't had the sense to organize the distribution of supplies all the way down the line . . .

I dreamed that because everyone was making more money and spending it, prices were skyrocketing.

all the stores looked like "fire" sales . . . with people scrambling to buy before prices went still higher . . .

panicky people were buying things they didn't need, and hoarding everything they could get their hands on . . .

I dreamed that everybody had to fight to get more money . . . and that in this mad race, wages and salaries were falling behind.

I dreamed the hand of everyone was against his neighbour, with each of us blaming the other fellow for his troubles.

with everybody for himself . . . no matter what it cost in the long run . . . and no matter how it hurt the war effort.

THEN...THANK GOODNESS—I WOKE UP!

to realize with relief that I live in a country where things are sane and stable . . . where the cost of living has been kept within bounds.

to realize that prices and wages—production costs and selling prices—are inseparably linked together.

to realize that without the safeguards that have headed off inflation, my nightmare might have become a reality!

to remind myself that the danger is still pressing and that we must continue to hold firm . . . and that means everybody must play fair and do his part by not trying to get some temporary, fabled advantage at the expense of his fellow-Canadians.

This advertisement is one of a series being issued by the Government of Canada to emphasize the importance of preventing further increases in the cost of living now and deflation later.

Congratulations to Ivy Foley who is now Sgt. Foley and to Cpl. Beatrice Trollope who wears an extra stripe. Cpl. Trollope is stationed at Pearce at the present.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Koch gave Mrs. Koch a real surprise Sunday on her 76th birthday, in fact catching them in a muddle, being half moved to their new home which they have just purchased from R. A. Brown. However, they soon repaired to the Strathmore Hotel where they had plenty of room to expand, while eating the delicious lunch the neighbors brought with them. Many lovely gifts accompanied with all good wishes made the surprise perfect.

Three young men viz. Bill Julian, Blaine Chapman and Bert Hill filled in the absence of Rev. Hunt last Sunday by taking the services at Arrowood Cluny and Gleichen. The young men enjoyed their participation in this helpful assistance, and received a very cordial welcome from the people of the various churches.

Capt. H. Sawley, Pte. E. Wilson and Lt. C. E. Knowlson are staying at the King Edward while they are supervising the work of placing the War Prisoners recently arrived.

At the regular meeting of the Lions Club Thursday, June 1st, an interesting part of the programme will be the reading of the "Briefs" given by the delegates of the C. Y. C. in Calgary last Saturday. Those reading the briefs were Miss Jean Backs, Miss Jean McMurray and Lawrence Way.

A. C. MacVails and Sgt. E. Wright leave for Montreal and Kingston Friday evening after enjoying leave in Strathmore and Calgary.

L. A. C. Snook is home from the Pacific Coast for a visit with his parents.

A. W. 2 Dorothy McNeill has been posted to Uplands, Ontario, as a stenographer in the R. C. A. F.

Lois White and Anna Mae Crory arranged a Farewell Party for Billy Foley Wednesday at Happy Hollow, and although the weather was damp their spirits were not and a fine time was had by all. As a remembrance token Billy was presented with a wallet.

C. P. R. SALE OF FARM STOCK

The closing out sale of this famed stock of Percherons, Holsteins and well-bred swine attracted an enormous crowd, buyers coming from many miles distant. The sale started at 10:30 a.m. and continued up to 5 p.m. when the auctioneer knocked down to the highest bidder the last article for sale. Auctioneers Durno and Glickstet price turns in the heavy day's sales. Prices ranged from high, good to fair but everything was sold. Thus closes another chapter in the history of the C. P. R. activities in the Strathmore area.

The Land Branch still remains with some of the officials working out of Strathmore.

Killed In Action

F/O CLYDE ARCHIBALD KILLED IN ACTION

Many Strathmore friends were grieved last night to read of the death in action of F/O Clyde Archibald, younger son of Mrs. F. Y. Archibald and the late Mr. Archibald.

The Archibald Family lived in Strathmore for about six years and were citizens of the best. Clyde joined the Tank Regiment at Stettler and qualified as Lieutenant at Gordon Head in 1941. He later joined the R. C. A. F. at Calgary. He received his wings as a pilot at Saskatoon in April 1943 and went overseas in Sept. 1943.

Clyde is survived by his Mother, one sister, Marion and a brother Lt. Wilfred Archibald now serving overseas.

Very sincere sympathy is extended the family.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH of Arthur Water Chief

An inquest was held at the Chase Funeral Parlors in Strathmore Monday evening re the death of Arthur Water Chief, Treaty Indian of the Blackfoot Reserve at Gleichen.

The deceased was travelling from Calgary to Gleichen in company with two other Indians, Arthur Little Fight and Dave Yellow Horse. At the time they were riding on the platform of a freight car and Water Chief was demonstrating to his companions how he would perform certain sporting events when he lost his balance and fell off the train. His companions tried to pull him back, but lost their hold.

The men had purchased "Lemon Extract" from Harry Lee, Calgary, of no fixed abode.

Lee was identified and charged under the Indian Act for supplying the liquor and was sentenced to one month's imprisonment at Lethbridge by Dr. Murray, Indian Agent at Sarcee Reserve.

NAVY LEAGUE APPEALS FOR DITTY BAGS

The Navy League is again appealing to the people of Alberta for assistance in their endeavor to supply comforts especially Ditty Bags to the men of the Merchant Navy.

Ditty bags are small bags packed with useful articles and are intended as gifts for the merchant seamen.

The Navy League has discovered that ditty bags never lose their usefulness even when emptied of their original contents, as many of the men call them "Grab Bags" since they fill them with necessities and in case of having to abandon ship they grab these prepared kits and thus have some preparation for emergencies.

The bags are free to those who wish to fill them, and they, and any further particulars, may be obtained by communicating with Women's Auxiliary, Navy League of Canada, Southern Alberta Division, 12 - Royal Bank Chambers, Calgary.

Well Filled Rag-Bags Mean More Production

Scraps of linen from Britain's rag bags are helping to relieve nerve-strain among factory workers.

Nerve-strain is being prevented because silent plastic gear-wheels are being fitted to certain machine tools in factories. The plastic is derived from pure linen - and pure linen has been freed for this purpose by the salvaging of linen rags.

Cotton rags, too help work in many ways. They make the wipers with

They release pure cotton for making a draughtsman's implements of transparent plastic. They help to make the paper on which the blue-prints are printed. One engine may need 30,000 blue-prints.
